

Biography

David M. Larson, MD, FACEP

Chairman, Department of Emergency Medicine, Ridgeview Medical Center President, Emergency Medicine Physicians and Consultants, PA Minneapolis, Minnesota

Dr. Larson earned his bachelors degree in biology and his medical degree from the University of Minnesota. He completed his residency in Family Medicine at the Hennepin County Medical Center in Minneapolis. He is a diplomate of the American Board of Family Practice and a Fellow of the American College of Emergency Physicians. He has been appointed as Associate Clinical Professor by the University of Minnesota Medical School in the Department of Family Practice and Community Health, and the Department of Emergency Medicine.

Dr Larson is Chairman of the Department of Emergency Medicine at Ridgeview Medical Center and President of Emergency Physicians and Consultants, PA. He also is the Medical Director of the Ridgeview Chest Pain Center. He also is a Principal Investigator at the Minneapolis Heart Institute Foundation Level 1 Myocardial Infarction program. He has an abiding interest in quality improvement methods in healthcare delivery.

Dr. Larson is a prolific speaker, writer and researcher. He has published over 60 articles in peer-reviewed publications and serves as a reviewer for the Journal of the American Medical Association and other journals.