

Biography

Lisa Northcutt Dutruch MSN, RN

Ms. Dutruch has over twenty years of experience in the field of nursing and has been consistently involved in nursing education for both health care professionals and the general public. In her current role as a Forensic Nurse at the law firm of Milling Benson Woodward, LLP, Ms. Dutruch has gained additional insight into the legal and ethical dilemmas created by the continuous evolution of modern medicine.

Dutruch serves as a speaker for the National Business Institute, specializing in medico-legal issues. Her lecture experience includes basic health care operations, health care compliance, and the application of legal theories to the provision of medical care. In her spare time, Ms. Dutruch promotes educational opportunities directed toward the identification of abuse victims and the regulations that require reporting of suspected abuse.
