

Biography

Joseph T. D. Tran, JD, CIPP/US

Mr. Tran received his Juris Doctorate from Loyola University New Orleans College of Law and is registered to practice law in Louisiana. He received his Bachelor of Science in mechanical engineering from Louisiana State University. With his legal and science degrees, Mr. Tran qualified and successfully registered to practice patent law before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Mr. Tran is a Certified Information Privacy Professional in the US.

In 2017, Mr. Tran joined LAMMICO's Risk Management and Patient Safety Department. He provides consultation to both the Risk Management and Patient Safety Department and Medical Interactive, a subsidiary of LAMMICO, on topics including healthcare law, federal disability laws, healthcare cybersecurity risks, accommodation of service animals, management of medical device recalls, and federal and state legislative updates. He further provides consultation to Medical Interactive on intellectual property matters like branding, trademark, and copyright.

In 2022, Mr. Tran became Associate General Counsel for LAMMICO.

Mr. Tran writes for LAMMICO print and electronic publications and develops educational content for LAMMICO insureds and MI clients.