

Biography

Richard A. Spector, MD, JD

Physician Consultant Risk Management Patient Safety, LAMMICO
One Galleria Boulevard, Suite 700, Metairie, LA 70001
800.452.2120

Dr. Spector received his medical degree in 1973 from the State University of New York at Buffalo, graduating as a member of Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society. He pursued internship and residency training at Tulane University affiliated hospitals, and became board certified in his specialty, Otolaryngology, Head & Neck Surgery, in 1978.

Dr. Spector is a Fellow in the American Academy of Otolaryngology and in the American College of Surgeons. He is Adjunct Assistant Clinical Professor of Otolaryngology at LSU Health Sciences Center, and Clinical Instructor in the Department of Otolaryngology at Tulane University School of Medicine. He published medical articles in Federation Proceedings, The Laryngoscope, Pediatric Cardiology, and Touro Infirmary Cancer Program Annual Report. He taught, or teaches, voice-related topics at NOCCA, Loyola University, and the University of New Orleans (UNO).

In 2001, Dr. Spector earned a Juris Doctor from Loyola University School of Law. He is admitted to practice law in Louisiana. He is a Fellow in the American College of Legal Medicine. He published health law articles in the Cumberland Law Review, Journal of the Louisiana State Medical Society, and Southern Medical Journal. He speaks to audiences of attorneys and physicians about health law issues, and taught Health Law Management and Ethics in the graduate department of the School of Business at UNO. He is certified in Louisiana as a mediator and consults in risk management for LAMMICO.